Barrett Business Services, Inc. Responds to Sherertz Group Request for Special Meeting

VANCOUVER, Washington, February 13, 2012 – Barrett Business Services, Inc. (BBSI) (NASDAQ: BBSI) announced today its response to a renewed request for a special meeting of stockholders by Kimberly J. Jacobsen Sherertz and her group.

In a letter to Ms. Sherertz's attorney, BBSI stated that it had determined that the total share ownership claimed in the requests submitted by the Sherertz group constitutes less than 25 percent of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, which is the minimum threshold required for such a request under the Maryland corporation statute and BBSI's bylaws. BBSI further noted apparent miscalculations of percentage of ownership in the group's public filings.

Anthony Meeker, BBSI's chairman of the board, emphasized, "The BBSI board is fully prepared to call a special meeting. However, the company cannot be expected to call a special stockholders meeting on behalf of a particular stockholder that has not been validly requested under applicable law and the company's bylaws. In addition, the board notes the substantial cost, management time and distraction from business operations that would be caused by a contested special meeting."

Mr. Meeker further noted, "When Ms. Sherertz and her group provide evidence of sufficient share ownership and voting entitlement and comply with any other legal requirements, we will move ahead promptly to call a special meeting."
